EXPERIENCE

Campus Publications | Times-Delphic and DrakeMag

By picking up and writing stories for the newspaper (The Times-Delphic) and magazine (DrakeMag) on campus, I have gained skills of timelessness, good interviewing habits, organizational skills, and strong writing skills.

Adams Leadership Institute | 2022 - present

Upon entering college, I was accepted into the Adams Leadership Institute. This prestigious organization only admits a select few each year and teaches students to use their natural skills to become successful leaders. Through the competition of the first stage of Adams I, I am already better able to apply my skills into leadership positions.

Personal Responsibility | Balancing finances, college, work, etc.

As a first-generation, lower-class student, I gained a lot of skills like time-management, stress-management, assertiveness, speaking and organizational skills through being held as the sole person responsible for getting to college, paying for college, and completing college. It has made me an independent and responsible person able to take on challenges and overcome them.
